

INVITATION
Pride-filmnights at OSA

The Rainbow Mission Foundation (Szivárvány Misszió Alapítvány) organizing Gay Dignity Procession cooperates with Open Society Archives (Nyílt Társadalom Archívum) to invite everybody for a series of films that examines the lives of Gays and Lesbians in the world today. We welcome to come and discuss these issues that are relevant for Hungary now as it prepares its LGBT Pride the week of August 30 – September 5 in Budapest.

Screenings begin at 6 pm every Wednesday evenings through the summer at OSA starting on July 8. Films are in original language with English subtitles and they will be followed by discussions of the theme (in Hungarian and English). Food and drink are available for purchase next door at the Cafe.

'Rise up for diversity and human rights' - to be a more colorful and tolerant world. Let's exchange observations!

Place:
OSA

H – 1051 Budapest, Arany János street 32.

Wednesday nights

6 pm – 8 pm.

The event is FREE

Films are the following:

1. July 8.

Between the Lines: India's Third Gender

Documentary on the lives of three 'hijras', biological men who dress as women though class themselves as neither gender: they are India's self-identified third gender.

Director: Thomas Wartmann
Producers: Ulrike Becker (SWR), Markus Breimaier, Thomas Riedelsheimer, Thomas Wartmann
Editor: Thomas Riedelsheimer
Cinematography: Thomas Riedelsheimer
Germany, 2006, 80 min, documentary film

2. July 15.

A Village Romance

In a dead-end-village a remaining member of the one time lesbian community falls in love with her next door neighbour who lives in miserable environment with her drunken abusive husband but still returns her love.

Director: Bódis Kriszta
Producer: Muhi András
Cinematography: Takács Mária
Production: Vigh István, Stalter Judit
Editor: Gyimesi László
 Hungary, 2006, 56 min, documentary film

3. July 22.

End of Second Class

A documentary that traces the debate on same sex marriage in Canada up to the passage of equal marriage legislation on July 20, 2005.

Producer/Director: Nancy Nicol
Editor: Ricardo Acosta
Director of Photography: Robin Bain
 Canada, 2006, 90 min, documentary film

4. July 29.

Shinjuku Boys

A documentary set in the New Marilyn night club in Tokyo, Japan - where the hosts are women who have chosen to live as men.

Directors: Kim Longinotto, Jano Williams
Producers: Alan Bookbinder, Kim Longinotto
Editor: John Mister
Cinematography: Kim Longinotto
 United Kingdom, 1995, 55 min, documentary film

5. August 5.

The Other Side of Istanbul

Homosexuals in Turkey, the way they have to fight for their rights in a predominately homophobic society.

Director: Döndü Kiliç
 Germany, 2008, 82 min, documentary film,
 Never been screened in Hungary

www.budapestpride.hu
press@budapestpride.hu
+36-30-597-5292

6. August 19.

The Parade (Our History)

While filming the organizers of a gay parade in a conservative provincial town for seven months, the city-bred filmmaker who never had to become an activist to be gay, discovers himself undergoing change.

Director: Lionel Baier

Producers: Robert Boner

Cinematography: Lionel Baier

Editor: Christine Hoffet

Switzerland, 2001, 78 min, documentary film

7. August 26.

A Jihad for Love

A Jihad for Love is the world's first documentary film on the coexistence of Islam and homosexuality.

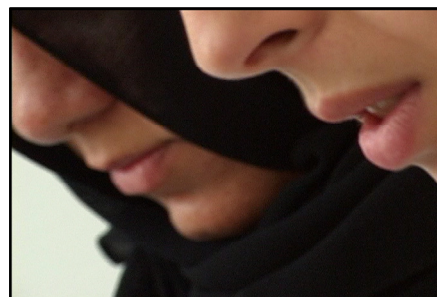

Director: Parvez Sharma

Producer: Sandi Simcha Dubowski

Editors: Stephen Vittoria (Theatrical Trailer), Juliet Weber

Cinematography: Berke Bas, David W. Leitner, Parvez Sharma

USA, UK, Germany / 2007 / 81 min.

The admission is FREE!

Press contact:

Maria Santa

santa.maria@budapestpride.hu

+36-30-597-5292